

El Camino Real Day

Follow the Trail

ALONG THE EL CAMINO REAL

PRESENTING PARTNER
NEW BRAUNFELS GERMAN - AMERICAN SOCIETY

HERITAGE VILLAGE

MUSEUM OF TEXAS HANDMADE FURNITURE

Heritage Village is an official
INTERPRETIVE SITE
along
EL CAMINO REAL
DE LOS TEJAS
NATIONAL HISTORIC TRAIL

OCTOBER 10, 2026

SATURDAY 10AM-2PM

1370 Church Hill Drive
New Braunfels, TX 78130

|                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| LIVING HISTORIAN PRESENTATIONSEngaging talks about El Camino Real & the people who traveled the trail. | HISTORY &amp; Nature ACTIVITIESHands-on experiences for all ages!! | FESTIVALFood, music, demonstrations & family fun! <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Games</li><li>• Scavenger Hunt</li><li>• Fun for the Kids</li></ul> | VENDORSShop unique treasures & support local.<small>Select experiences will be available for an additional fee.</small> |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

DRESS THE PART!

We encourage all patrons to dress in El Camino Real 1800's attire and be a part of the story!

Your Choice of Entry

SHARE YOUR EMAIL & ENTER FREE

Stay connected and receive updates about our events & future activities.

$5

PREFER NOT TO SHARE?
$5 ENTRY
A small contribution helps support our mission & future events.

MORE DETAILS

SCAN HERE
OR
CLICK HERE

THE CELEBRATION CONTINUES

DINNER UNDER THE OAKS

An Evening Along the El Camino Real Trail

Join us for an evening beneath the oaks with dinner, live music, silent auction & more.

Dinner is a separate ticketed event.

Scan QR code for details and to purchase tickets.

PRESERVING THE PAST.

HONORING OUR JOURNEY.

INSPIRING THE FUTURE